Numb. 3118

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 29, 1744.

Yesterday arriv'd a Mail from Holland.

Constantinople, January 12.

IT has been no longer practicable, to conceal from the Publick, the diſtreſſed Condition in which the City of Bagdad now is, notwithſtanding all the Reports that have been publiſhed, of the Succeſs of our Troops againſt the Perſians. This ill News rouſed all our Malecontents, who immediately began talk not only of changing the Miniſtry, but of depoſing the Grand Signor; in the end, however, Means have been found to quiet theſe Tumults. Council upon Council has been held, and in the laſt it was reſolved, that the Grand Vizir ſhould immediately put himſelf at the Head of the Army, in order to march directly, and raiſe the Siege of Bagdad. We are, however, very apprehenſive, that he muſt come too late; and that, conſequently, he will become a Victim to this unfortunate Affair. All the principal Officers of the ſeveral different Corps, have had Orders to march from their reſpective Quarters, in order to reach the Place of general Rendezvous in Meſopotamia.

Copenhagen, February 22. It is certain, that we are perfectly at Eaſe, notwithſtanding the Concluſion of Peace with Sweden; our Court having received an Information, that the Ruſſian Troops at preſent in that Kingdom, under the Command of General Keith, will, after their Return, be made uſe of to ſupport the Intereſt of the Holſtein Family. Upon this, Orders have been diſpatched to our Officers and Governors in that Country, to be upon their Guard, and to give the Court early Intelligence of any Stirs that may happen there. But tho' it may appear we are no leſs deſirous of preſerving Peace, than of being ready at all Events for War, Orders have been ſent to M. Holſtein, to continue his Journey to Moſcow with all imaginable Diligence, that he may propoſe to the Czarina in Time, the Propoſitions with which he is charged, for terminating effectually all the Diſputes between this Crown and the Houſe of Holſtein, under the Mediation of a certain Power, whoſe good Offices in adjuſting the Diſputes of the North, have been already very kindly received by her Imperial Majeſty.

Naples, February 11. On the Return of the Couriers that were lately diſpatched to Barletta and Manfredonia, the Troops have had Orders to advance towards the Frontiers, which, we ſuppoſe, is in order to ſupport the Spaniſh Army; to which, it is no longer poſſible for us to ſend any Supplies, the Engliſh Men of War taking, and taking, moſt of our Veſſels, making Uſe of the Proviſions themſelves, and ſending the Ammunition on board them to the Auſtrian Army. We have, this Moment, News, that Marching Orders are again ſent to the Troops who were directed to halt Yeſterday; but we are abſolutely ignorant, as to the Place of their Deſtination.

Genoa, February 15. They are preparing at Villafranca an Embarkation of Piedmonteſe Troops, which, we have Reaſon to believe, are deſtined to aſſiſt Prince Lobkowitz in his Deſign againſt the Kingdom of Naples. The laſt mentioned General has been, for ſome Time, dangerouſly indiſpoſed; which, we take to be the Reaſon, that as yet, he has not attacked the Spaniards. General Braun, and Count Colleredo, are, by this Time, in his Quarters; where, if his Highneſs is not in a Condition to act, the former will aſſume the Command. It is certain, that the German Army is increaſed a Third within theſe Six Weeks; that the Engliſh Men of War, off the Coaſt of the Eccleſiaſtical State, hinder all Sorts of Proviſions from being conveyed by Sea to the Spaniards. We have, lately, received Advice from Corſica, that the Inhabitants of the Diſtricts behind the Mountains, have thought fit to ſend Notice to the Governor of Baſtia, That though they cannot determine to act, immediately, the Propoſitions of Peace made to them from Genoa, yet the State might ſafely withdraw their Troops out of the Iſland, ſince they were determined not to commit any Hoſtilities; upon which, the Garriſon of Ajaccio was actually embarked for the Continent.

Vienna, February 24. Their Royal Highneſſes Prince Charles, and the Archduchеſs Mary-Anne, ſet out Yeſterday for the Low Countries, accompanied by the Queen as far as Stockeraw; but the Duke, Co-Regent, will accompany them to Prague. This Journey was undertaken, after having been once laid aſide, for Reaſons of great Importance, but of a Nature not fit to be diſcloſed at preſent. The Prince and Princeſs will not be above 22 Days, in all, on their Journey from this Capital to Bruſſels; and Orders have been iſſued, throughout all the Dominions of our Sovereign, for paying them, every where, the ſame Honours that were paid the late Archduchеſs, Aunt to her Majeſty. We reckon, that To-morrow in the Evening their Highneſſes will reach Prague, from whence they will continue their Journey through Saxony; and, in order to avoid a tedious Ceremonial, and creating a needleſs, as well as a large Expence, their Interview with the Saxon Court will be at Meiſſen, and not at Dreſden. The Regiment of Cordova, which, it was thought, would have marched into Italy, is countermanded, and have now Orders to march into Bavaria. We are aſſured, that the Diſpatches brought by the laſt Courier from England, relate to the Treaty of Commerce on Foot between his Britannick Majeſty and the Queen our Sovereign; and, it is ſaid, that his Majeſty has conſented that a Paſſage-Duty of One per Cent. ſhall be levied upon all Goods exported to Oſtend, which, in other Reſpects, however, ſhall be, to all Intents and Purpoſes, a free Port.

Franckfort, March 1. The Report is very ſtrong, that France, in the beginning of the Spring, will aſſemble an Army of 80,000 Men in the Neighbourhood of Mentz; and we are aſſured, that the French Court has already demanded from the three Eccleſiaſtical Electors the neceſſary Quantities of Forage for the Uſe of that Army; viz. to the Value of 40,000 Florins from the Elector of Mentz, 20,000 from the Elector of Triers, and 40,000 from the Elector of Cologn; inſiſting likewiſe, that the firſt-mentioned Prince ſhall aſſiſt them with two Bridges of Boats in the Space of ſix Weeks. His Imperial Majeſty ſtill keeps his Chamber with the Gout, notwithſtanding which, he daily gives Audience to his Miniſters; and, but a few Days ago, a grand Council was held, wherein it was reſolved to augment conſiderably the Privileges of the ſeveral Princes of the Empire, when they receive from his Majeſty the Inveſtiture of their reſpective Dominions; in order to induce the Princes and States of the Empire to ſend their Quotas more willingly to the Army of Obſervation, which is ſhortly to aſſemble in the Neighbourhood of this City. We have juſt received Advice, that the Eſpouſals of his Highneſs the Duke of Wirtemberg with the Princeſs Elizabetha-Sophia-Frederica, ſole Daughter to the Margrave of Brandenberg-Bareith, were celebrated on the 21ſt of laſt Month at Erlangen; which gives great Pleaſure to the Imperial Court.

Extract of a Letter from Paris, dated Feb. 28.

'The Courier from Toulon, who arrived Yeſterday 'at the Board of Marine, brought ſome private Letters, 'containing the following Circumſtances in relation to 'the late Battle at Sea.

'On the 19th the combined Fleets of France and 'Spain weighed Anchor, in order to take the Advan'tage of a N. W. Wind; but as it died away almoſt as 'ſoon as they ſailed, they were obliged to come again 'to an Anchor. The next Morning they put to Sea 'again, when the Ship commanded by the Chevalier de 'Beaufremont returning from reconnoitring the Enemy, 'ran foul of one of the largeſt Ships in the Fleet; by 'which ſhe was ſo much injured, that it was found ne'ceſſary to ſend her into Port, after dividing her Crew 'amongſt the reſt of the Squadron. On the 21ſt, the com'bined Fleet were employed all Day in gaining the Wind, 'in order to have Sea Room. On the 22d, in the Morn'ing, the Engliſh, who had alſo weighed, and had the 'Advantage of the Wind, attacked the Rear of the 'French Fleet, which alone ſuſtained the Engagement 'for ſome Hours; but the Wind vereing to the Weſt, 'the Van and the Centre came to their Aſſiſtance, and 'all their Lines being broken, the whole French Fleet 'engaged, and the Battle was at the Height about Six 'o'Clock, when the Courier came away.

'The Expreſs reports, that being arrived at his firſt 'Poſt, he went to the Top of a Hill, from whence he 'diſcerned three Veſſels diſabled, of which two were 'on Fire; it is ſuppoſed they were Engliſh. There is 'great Probability that the Fight was renewed on the '23d; for which Reaſon the Arrival of a ſecond Cou'rier is expected with the utmoſt Impatience.'

Bruſſels, March 3. According to all Appearance, the French will be very early in opening the Campaign; and, if we may depend upon repeated Intelligence, their firſt Enterprize will be the Siege of Mons. They are embarking at Dunkirk 15,000 Men, 10,000 Saddles and Bridles, with a vaſt Quantity of Arms and Ammunition, and make no Secret of their Deſign; which, they ſay, is againſt ſome of his Britannick Majeſty's Dominions. The following Letter has been received by a Merchant here:

'Marſeilles, February 28. I have juſt Time to tell 'you, that an Account is arrived here, of a very bloody 'Engagement, which laſted two Days, between the com'bined Fleet of France and Spain, and the Engliſh Fleet 'under Admiral Mathews; towards the Evening, on the '22d, three Spaniſh Veſſels were towed out of the 'Line, in a miſerable Condition; however, the next 'Day the French Fleet renewed the Fight, which con'tinued very obſtinate till towards Noon, when the 'French having had either eight or nine Sail ſunk, 'were obliged to retire; and, as we are informed, 'are now in the Road and Port of Toulon.

General Poſt-Office, London, February 8, 1744.

WHEREAS the Poſt-Boy, going out with the Weſt Mail from this Office, was this Morning, between Five and Six o'Clock, attack'd on the Highway at the Stating Place, on the other Side of Turnham-Green, by a ſingle Highwayman, who took the ſaid Poſt-Boy into a Field adjoining to the Road, and opened the Mail, and carried off the Exeter and Plymouth Bags: The Perſon, who committed this Robbery, is a middle-ſized Man, and had on a Blue Great Coat, with his Hat tied over his Head, and he rode on a Sorrel Horſe with a White Face, about Fourteen Hands high, and made off for Acton, the Oxford Road.

This therefore is to give Notice, that whoever ſhall apprehend and convict, or cauſe to be apprehended and convicted, the Perſon who committed this Robbery, will be intitled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, over and above the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen: Or if any Perſon or Perſons, whether Accomplice in the ſaid Robbery, or knowing thereof, ſhall make a Diſcovery, whereby the Perſon who committed the ſame may be apprehended and brought to Juſtice, ſuch Diſcoverer, or Diſcoverers, will, upon Conviction of the Party, be intitled to the ſame Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, and alſo have his Majeſty's moſt gracious Pardon.

By Command of the Poſt-Maſter General, George Shelcocke, Secretary.

IRELAND.

Dublin, February 21. Letters from Waterford, by Yeſterday's Poſt ſay, that a Ship from Faro, bound to this Port, is put in there; and the Captain ſays, he ſaw 18 Sail of large Ships going into Cadiz, which is ſuppoſed to be the Galleons, and Men of War under the Command of Admiral Torres.

Laſt Week Shapland Carew, of Woodſtown, in the County of Waterford, Eſq; Counſellor at Law, was married to Miſs Dobſon, Daughter of Iſaac Dobſon, Eſq; one of the Six Clerks in Chancery.

Saturday Night laſt, about 12 o'Clock, began a moſt Violent Storm, which did great Damage to ſeveral Ships in our Harbour; and one of the Tranſports which ſailed that Day, was obliged to put into Skerries, having loſt her Bo'ſprit.

Yeſterday, at 12 o'Clock at Noon, died at his Seat at Cartown, in the County of Kildare, the Right Hon. Robert Fitzgerald, the 18th Earl of Kildare, and Baron of Ophaly, premier Earl of the Kingdom of Ireland, and chief Ranger of all his Majeſty's Foreſts, Parks, &c. and one of his Privy-Council.

The ſame Day, a Proclamation was iſſued by the Lord Lieutenant and Council of this Kingdom, promiſing a Reward of 200 l. on Conviction, for the taking and apprehending John Anſter Stephen; 30 l. for each of the following Perſons, viz. John Connel, James Prendergraſt, Arthur Keeffe, Chriſtian Goold, Patrick Kereene, Thomas Fitzgerald, and Dennis Fahy; and 20 l. for every other Perſon concerned in forcibly carrying away Catherine Stackpole of the County of Cork, Widow.

Yeſterday Morning a general Embargo was laid on all Veſſels in our Harbour; and, we hear, that two Men are on board each Foreign Ship, and the French Sails taken on Shore.

Laſt Night died at his Houſe on Uſher's-Quay, the Rev. Archdeacon Uſher, Father to the Lady Moleſworth.

Dublin, February 23. We hear, that the Right Rev. Dr. Price, Biſhop of Meath, will be promoted to the Archiepiſcopal See of Caſhel; the Right Rev. Dr. Maul, Biſhop of Dromore, tranſlated to the See of Meath; Dr. Fletcher, Dean of Down, created Biſhop of Dromore; and Dr. Smith, Dean of Raphoe, will be remov'd to the Deanery of Down.

HOME PORTS.

Dover, February 27. 'At Nine this Morning, Sir 'John Norris, in the Victory, with Admiral Martin, and and about 14 Sail of the Line, and seven or eight more King's Ships, paſſed this Road for the Downs They had all their Maſts ſtanding, ſo hope they have not receiv'd any Damage by the late Storm. There were Yeſterday eight Sail of Ships on Shore, a little to the Eaſtward of Mardyke Old Harbour, ſuppoſed to be all French, four of them large Ships; there were alſo 24 Sail in Dunkirk Road, at Anchor. Several of the Anchors which the French Men of War left near Dungeneſs, are brought into this Place.'

Deal, February 27. Wind W. Arrived this Forenoon Sir John Norris, with the Fleet under his Command; and remains with the Outward-bound as per laſt. Came down the Volunteer, Eggleſtone, for Monſerrat; and the Endeavour, Anſell, for Jamaica.

Graveſend, February 27. Paſſed by the Grand Duke, Mauger, and the St. Elenor, Romans, both from Stangate Creek.

LONDON.

Private Letters from the Hague ſay, that they have Advice from Paris, that on the Arrival of a ſecond Courier from Toulon, Orders were diſpatch'd to all the Ports on the Ocean, to prevent either Letters or Meſſengers from being ſent abroad; whence it is conceived, that the Report ſpread by the Court of a drawn Battle, deſerves little Credit.

We learn from Moſcow, that her Imperial Majeſty arrived there on the 25th of January, O. S. in perfect Health, as did his Imperial Highneſs the Grand Duke on the 28th; upon which extraordinary Rejoicings were made there.

We have a Confirmation from Bologna, that General Count de Gages was retreating towards Naples, where he was to be joined by 12,000 Men of the beſt Troops in that Kingdom.

Notwithſtanding the Reports that have been ſpread, as to the Troops of the Landgrave of Heſſe-Caſſel, it is certain, that the 6000 at preſent in Britiſh Pay, have actually left their Winter-Quarters, and paſſed the Rhine, in order to enter into Brabant; and that there is great Reaſon to believe, that 6000 more will be taken into the Pay of the States-General.

Some Private Letters from the Hague ſay, that a certain Foreign Miniſter, notwithſtanding all the Precautions of the Court of France, had found Means to convey thither an Account of the late Sea-fight; by which it appears, that the combin'd Squadron was entirely beaten; and, according to his Account, eight Spaniſh and three French Ships were ſunk, and the reſt retired into Toulon.

Sir Charles Hardy, with five Sail of Men of War, were ordered to Portſmouth after the late Storm. Moſt of the Fleet loſt their Anchors and Cables; and, 'tis generally believed, that his Majeſty's Ship the Kinſale, of 40 Guns, foundered in the Storm, after running foul of the Prince Frederick and the Dolphin.

Laſt Monday Night Col. Cecil, after being examined before the Council ſeveral Times, was committed to the Tower.

Laſt Saturday died, at Cambridge, the Rev. Mr. Taylor, Fellow of Trinity College, and Greek Profeſſor of that Univerſity.

Yeſterday 155,300 Yards of Linen from Londonderry were entered at the Cuſtom-houſe.

A few Days ſince Thomas Beynon, Eſq; of Kethly in the County of Carmarthen, a young Gentleman of 24, was married at Llanwino, to Miſs Anne Williams, of Nantyr Eglwis in the ſame County, a Maiden Lady of 80, with a Fortune of 10,000 l. The Bride was Firſt Couſin to the Bridegroom's Grandfather.

The Salamander Bomb, and the Deptford's Prize, being unfit for Service, are order'd to be ſold.

Admiralty-Office, February 22, 1743.

THE Leave of Abſence given to the Petty-Officers and Foremaſtmen belonging to his Majeſty's Sloop the Swift, expiring the 23d Inſtant, and the Lords Commiſſioners of the Admiralty having order'd them to be turned over to his Majeſty's Ship the Cheſter at Deptford, it is their Lordſhips Direction, that the ſaid Men do repair down to that Ship at the Expiration of their Leave; and they will be paid the Remainder of the Wages for the Swift Sloop, and Two Months Advance on board the Cheſter, before ſhe proceeds to Sea. But if they fail to repair to the ſaid Ship, when their Leave is expired, they will not only loſe the aforeſaid Wages, but Directions will be given for apprehending them, in order to their being tried at a Court Martial as Deſerters.

Thomas Corbett.

General Poſt-Office, London, January 12, 1743.

WHEREAS the Poſt-boy carrying the North Mail from Huntington to Stilton, was Yeſterday, the 11th Inſtant, about Six of the Clock in the Evening, attacked on the Highway, at a Place called Standgate-Hole, by a ſingle Highwayman, who preſented a Piſtol to the Poſt-boy's Breaſt, and carried off the following Bags; viz. Durham, Hull, Boſton, Falkingham, Lincoln, Horncaſtle, Lourh, Spalding, Stamford, Bourn, and Peterborough.

The Perſon who committed this Robbery is a luſty Man, and had on a large dark Frock over his Coat; his Face was covered with Black, and he rode on a dark Sorrel Horſe, with a White Face, and made off for the Biggleſwade Road.

This therefore is to give Notice, That whoever ſhall Apprehend and convict, or cauſe to be apprehended and convicted, the Perſon who committed this Robbery, will be entitled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, over and above the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen: Or if any Perſon or Perſons, whether Accomplice in the ſaid Robbery, or knowing thereof, ſhall make a Diſcovery, whereby the Perſon who committed the ſame, may be apprehended, and brought to Juſtice, ſuch Diſcoverer or Diſcoverers will, upon Conviction of the Party, be entitled to the ſame Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, and alſo have his Majeſty's moſt gracious Pardon.
